Aliases

Aliases are created when lenders tell us of other names you have been known by or when you tell us of other names you have used. Your credit report will include information recorded in these other names at the addresses you gave us when you applied for your report.

No data is present for this section of your report.

Financial Associations

Financial associations show details of anyone you are financially connected to. Financial connections can be created by joint accounts, joint applications, joint court judgments, or from information you have given to us. For further information please see our important advice section at the end of your report. When you apply for credit a lender may take into account financial information about people you are financially connected to.

Previous Searches

Previous searches show the names of organisations that have seen or used some or all of the information recorded on your credit report within the past 12 months. Searches of your credit report should all have been made with your consent. Most will relate to credit applications you have made but some may be routine checks by your lenders on accounts you already have. Quotation searches (including those made via price comparison websites), unrecorded enquiries, identity verification checks and credit report applications are shown your copy of your report but are not seen by lenders and are not taken into account when making credit decisions.

CIFAS - The UK's Fraud Prevention Service

CIFAS aims to detect and prevent fraud and so protect innocent people whose names, addresses and other personal details are used fraudulently by others in order to get credit, insurance or other products. If you see a CIFAS entry on your credit report, this will be for one of three reasons: (1) because you have taken out CIFAS Protective Registration; or (2) an organisation has done so on your behalf, perhaps because they have lost data on a laptop, for example; or (3) If a CIFAS Member organisation has put the entry on your report because you have been a victim of impersonation. Organisations who are Members of CIFAS examine credit (and similar) applications very carefully and may contact you to make sure that you have applied for the credit yourself, and that you are not being impersonated by a fraudster. If there is a CIFAS entry recorded in your name, and you require further information, you should contact the CIFAS Member organisation at the address provided against the entry.
